Blaze kills woman, child

A mother and her three-year-old son were killed and her husband was burned in a fire at 1735 Olive Street at 9:50 a.m. Saturday.

Dead are Mrs. Penelope Woolen, 24, and her son, Oliver Lee Woolen Jr., who was to celebrate his fourth birthday next Sunday. Oliver L. Woolen Sr., 26, is recuperating from burns in St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Belleville.

A next-door neighbor, Clyde Tyler, 1737 Olive St., is credited with saving Woolen's life as he heard a small explosion, checked the rear of the Woolens' home and saw Mr. Woolen looking out a bathroom window. Tyler then broke in the back door of the home, led Woolen to the back yard and called firemen.

Granite City firemen received the first alarm at 9:52 a.m. and the first trucks from the West Granite City station were on the scene by 9:45 a.m. Saturday, according to official reports.

However, trucks and manpower from the main fire station, were delayed about 10 minutes by a train blocking the crossings between West Granite City and the downtown area, witnesses said.

One of the first firemen on the scene reported, "It was terrible. The father was out there asking us to go in and save his wife and son and there was nothing we could do. The heat and the flames were too intense. I'll never forget it."

When firemen arrived at the scene, the living room was engulfed in flames and the fire had spread to a bedroom in the center of the house. They were unable to locate either of the victims until the fire had been subdued.

The child was found underneath a

SAVER OF ONE LIFE, Clyde Tyler, 1737 Olive St., left, discusses how he broke the back door of the blazing home next door and led Oliver Woolen Sr. from the back door and outside. He is shown in the back yard of the Woolen home with Fire Chief Don Parente, right, and Shift Commander Harry Hillman, center. Tyler said he heard a small explosion, noticed smoke and then saw Woolen looking out a broken bathroom window. He went in and saved him, but could not reach Woolen's wife or child due to intense heat and dense smoke.

Balloting tomorrow

Voters in Granite City and in the Venice Park District will go to the polls Tuesday to elect officials.

Polls will be open from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. for both elections.

Highlighting the voting for Granite City officials will be the race for superintendent of streets where the incumbent, Lionel Portell, faces one of his employees, Clayton "Jug" Harrison, for a four-year term. Portell seeks a third term.

There is competition in all seven Granite City wards for four-year aldermanic positions, including four-way races in Wards One and Seven and three-way races in Wards Three, Four and Six.

In the First Ward, incumbent Alderman Everett "Cherry" Morien faces William "Bill" Worthen, Harvey Scarsdale and former alderman William "Bill" Dallas Sr. on the ballot.

Incumbent Sam Whitmer and Joseph McGinness Sr. will face off for a Ward Two seat on the City Council.

8-0 for Venice housing program

By MICK STRANGE

Press-Record Staff Writer

The Venice City Council unanimously (8-0) voted Thursday night to authorize W. A. Thomas and Company, along with the Madison County Community Development agency, to submit a new housing and recreation development plan to the U.S. Housing and Urban Development Department (HUD).

At a Venice council meeting two nights earlier, the aldermen had split 4-4 on the same issue.

City and school officials from Madison have been opposed to the project on the basis that there was a possibility of more families with school-age children moving in, thus causing additional costs to taxpayers.

The North Venice location is in the Madison School District.

The other point made by Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk in opposing the proposal is that he feels that the tract at Klein and Bissell streets is a prime industrial location.

Prior to the vote Thursday, Venice Acting Mayor Phillip Daniels read a petition with several hundred signatures of Venice residents, urging the council to reconsider its decision and to approve the plan.

Daniels said, "I do appreciate everyone's concern on this. I would like

Plans for the 1979 Tri-Cities Area Clean-Up Day, which will be held Saturday, were completed Friday, with last-minute details being handled this week.

Lacey Randolph, chairman of the Community Pride Committee of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce, said most arrangements for the mammoth task are completed, and the only problem may be the possibility of rain. In the event of rain, an alternate date, April 21, has been set.

The clean-up will be held from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon Saturday and will be

Travelers enchanted by Polynesian islands

By ALFRED E. KRUMSIEK

At last week's meeting of Travelers Abroad, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Stoeve described their 65-day trip through the South Pacific. In introducing the speakers, Walter Klein stated that the Stoeves, who have toured every part of the world, have 8,000 lantern slides and boxes with index and cross references which enable them to locate quickly any place or any topic.

The Stoeve trip, termed "Circle Pacific," was on a Norwegian luxury liner which was built in Finland. The journey was a vast, circular sweep from San Francisco through Moorea, Tahiti, and many other Polynesian islands, and then to New Zealand, Australia, Bali, Hong Kong and Japan.

In crossing the equator, the passengers witnessed the custom of hazing those who were crossing for the first time.

This practice, though less brutal and ribald than formerly, seemed horrible enough. King Neptune, trident in hand, ordered the three victims to be dragged onto an operating table and to be cut up.

Passengers of course, were exempt, but the three initiates, who had volunteered, were handled roughly.

At the volcanic islands of Moorea and nearby Tahiti, the Stoeves, like all tourists, came under the spell of the Polynesian people.

Because of their simple life and natural graces amid enchanting island surroundings, the Polynesians have long exercised a strong romantic appeal to the outside world.

These brown-skinned people, gentle, soft-featured, large-framed people have long fascinated scientists and writers.

As the many Polynesian islands were explored and conquered by the French and British in the late 18th Century, and have recently gained their independence, they present a strange mixture of ancient and modern times.

The natives gain their livelihood largely from tourist trade, offering the westerners their beautiful fabrics and carvings, but always gently — never obtrusive, never high pressure.

On several of the islands, one sees monuments to Captain James Cook, who was not only the greatest explorer but also a distinguished mathematician and astronomer, especially in his recording of the transit of Venus.

The two planets Mercury and Venus, which are nearer to the sun than the earth, sometimes pass between the sun and the earth, producing a small dark circular disk on the sun. This phenomenon was observed by Captain Cook on the island of Tahiti in 1769, where it was more observable than on any other spot in the world.

On another island is the famous "Stonehenge of the Pacific," built in the 13th Century, whose structure shows definite knowledge of the sun's annual course.

Assertive training here

A seven-week assertive training group will be offered in the Granite City Clinic, Quad-City Center starting next week.

Assertive training is a "way of learning how to respond to people in an open, honest and direct manner without infringing on the other person's rights or giving up one's own."

It can help people "feel better about themselves by teaching them how to get their ideas across to others. The group will focus on developing effective communication skills and increasing self-confidence. It is taught in a small, supportive group setting which is a skill training group rather than group therapy," a spokesman said.

The group will begin on Tuesday, April 10, at the N a m e o k i United Presbyterian Church, 1700 Pontoon Road. The meetings will be from 6 to 8 on Tuesday evenings through May 22.

The fee is based on personal family income, with a maximum fee of $35. Anyone interested in learning assertive training may contact Marjorie Baier of Charles DeGiacoia at 877-4420.

Vivian Gray becomes a Welcome Wagon hostess

Vivian Gray has completed training as a Welcome Wagon hostess and will be greeting households in Granite City, Mrs. Barbara Marshall, president of Welcome Wagon International, has announced.

Mrs. Gray will call on "new movers" to present gifts from local sponsoring businesses. As a community service, she will also distribute information for many government agencies and local civic and cultural groups.

To request a Welcome Wagon call, Vivian Gray can be contacted at 874-3077.

The oldest and largest national greeting service, Welcome Wagon has more than 8,500 hosts and hostesses nationwide who call on 1,500,000 households annually.

The organization, founded in Memphis, Tenn., in 1928, takes its name from the Conestoga wagons of frontier days. Loaded with food and gifts, these wagons were sent out to greet passing wagon-trains in hopes of enticing travelers to settle in local communities.

A 65-foot mobile home was demolished by fire at 4:10 p.m. Thursday at 728 Twenty-eighth Place, where firefighters battled the blaze for one hour and 15 minutes. The fire was discovered in a bedroom by a small girl after she arrived home from school. The child ran to the home of a neighbor, who summoned firemen. It is believed a short-circuit wiring may have started the blaze. It quickly spread through the entire dwelling and resulted in a total of $7,000 loss to the mobile home and $3,000 to its contents. The owner and occupant was Douglas Cook.

Two of this area's major trucking firms are not affected by the nationwide strike and lockout.

The closings were declared by the trucking industry Sunday after the Teamsters Union began strikes against selected companies when its contract had expired at midnight Saturday night.

Roger M. Bowler of R. M. Bowler Contract Hauling Co., 2609 Mockingbird Lane, said his fleet of trucks will continue to operate in Missouri and Illinois under an interim agreement with Teamsters Local 525.

A spokesman for M. C. Slater Inc., 2280 W. Chain of Rocks Road, said that company is not affected by the strike and its trucks will continue to operate through authorization of Teamsters Local 525.

Slater's trucks operate in a four-state region. After the marathon contract talks collapsed in Washington late Saturday,

Youth is charged in Hodge murder

John Patrick McCullough, 18, of 2007 Sixth St., East Madison, is being held without bond in the Madison County jail, charged with murder, murder in the commission of a felony, and armed robbery.

The charges stem from the killing of William Aaron "Billy" Hodge, 18, of 1941 Rhodes St., Madison, last Monday.

McCullough was taken before Circuit Judge Harold R. Clark Friday afternoon and pleaded innocent.

He was arrested at 9:27 a.m. Thursday by Madison County sheriff deputies, who saw him in the 2000 block of Sixth Street driving a 1968 Chevrolet car that authorities had been looking for.

Mr. Hodge allegedly was slashed to death in the back seat of the car McCullough was driving. His body was found in the Bend Road area.

Police feel the motive was robbery, as it is believed $250 was taken from Mr. Hodge.

Police have recovered what they believe to be murder weapon, a folding pocketknife with a four-inch blade.

"Want to Know Why I Save Here?"

"Because everyone is so friendly and courteous. They take the time to explain things to me and know my name. This is important to a woman."

Man lying in roadway

Granite City police were told at 2:55 a.m. Saturday that a white Mustang Cobra stopped on Nameoki Road at Pontoon Road, a passenger left the vehicle and lay down in the middle of the traffic lanes, and the white auto was driven away, knocking down a traffic control light.

A witness said that after the passenger got out of the car and lay in the street, the driver of the car tried to get him back in the vehicle but could not.

The auto then left after striking the pole on the northeast corner of the intersection and went north on Route 203 toward Interstate 270. The auto had Missouri license plates, it is believed.

When police arrived, the passenger had managed to get to the side of the roadway, where he was arrested. Paul S. Hinderberger, 30, Hermann, Mo., was charged with disorderly conduct. He was released at 12:30 p.m. Saturday on $30 cash bond.

The driver of the white car has not been located.

LOOT MOBILE HOME

A $350 television set and a $200 stereo were stolen during a burglary at the mobile home of Virgil Mead, 2514 W. 24th St., between March 23 and 1:50 p.m. Friday. A door was forced open.

The executive committee of Trucking Management Inc., the industry's bargaining agent, said in a statement it "had no alternative but to instruct its member associations and authorizing carriers to shut down their operations in defense against the strike."

The industry group said 42 major carriers were affected by the strike. Union sources, however, said 75 companies were struck.

Twenty-six freight haulers are being picketed today in the St. Louis area.

Negotiators for the union and industry have agreed to remain in contact with federal mediators, although there has been no word on when talks will be resumed.

The industry's decision to counter the strike with a "defensive shutdown" could make it easier for the Carter administration to obtain a back-to-work order under the Taft-Hartley Act, it is being speculated.

Firemen said the cause of the fire has burned couch in the living room with severe burns.

Mrs. Woolen was between the bed and the wall in the center bedroom. She suffered some blisters, but was not burned, authorities said. She apparently died of smoke inhalation, firemen believe.

A large black dog also was found without signs of life under the kitchen table, apparently a victim of the smoke, since flames did not reach the kitchen.

Madison County Deputy Coroner Randall Irwin was called to the scene about 10:50 a.m. but was delayed a short time by another train. He declared Mrs. Woolen and the child dead at the scene at 11:15 a.m. Saturday and the bodies were removed to a local funeral home.

Mr. Woolen, who refused for a time to leave the fire scene until his wife and son were located, was taken by Granite City ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center, arriving at 10:22 a.m.

He was treated for burns and was transferred to the Bellevue hospital, where he suffered multiple burns to his right hand, second degree burns to two areas of his back, first degree burns to his right shoulder, back and face, and singed hair on his head.

He was reported in good condition and talking to authorities yesterday. Firemen said the cause of the fire has not been determined, but it appeared to have started in the living room, near the television set. A possible electrical short-circuit in the wiring to or in the TV set is listed as a possible cause.

Mr. Woolen worked on the 4 p.m. to midnight shift at American Steel Foundries and was believed sleeping when the fire started. The child may have gone into the adjacent living room to watch television when the fire began, firemen speculated.

At the fire scene, Tyler told the Press-Record he was working on his truck in the back yard of his home when he heard a slight explosion, looked and saw smoke coming from the neighboring home.

He ran to the back yard of the Woolen home and saw Woolen looking out the bathroom window which Woolen had broken. Tyler then broke open the back door, entered through the dense smoke and led Woolen outside.

Mrs. Tyler said she then ran to the front door and tried to get in, but said the front of the house "was a sheet of flame," and she could not attempt to enter.

Woolens' daughter, Stacey Marie, four, was a patient at St. Elizabeth Medical Center for an illness at the time, so she was not involved in the fire.

Firemen estimated damage to the building at $8,000 and to the contents at $5,000.

Mrs. Woolen was born in East St. Louis and had resided in Granite City for six years.

Other than her husband, Oliver L. Woolen Sr., survivors include the daughter, Stacy Woolen; her parents, Donald E. Tucker Sr., Eldon, Mo., and Mrs. William B. (Margie Biggs) Roebuck, Thorsby, Ala.; three sisters, Mrs. Billy (Lucinda) Hardman, Clanton, Ala., Mrs. Wendell (Marsha) Rains, Marianna, Fla., and Ruth Ann Roebuck, Thorsby, Ala.; three brothers, Donald Tucker Jr. and Marvin Tucker, both of Clanton, Ala., and Emerson Roebuck, Thorsby, Ala.; and grandparents, Mrs. Marvin Tucker, Eldon, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Biggs.

Her son, Oliver Lee Woolen Jr., three years old, was born in Belleville. He is survived by his father, Oliver L. Woolen Sr.; one sister, Stacy Woolen; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Woolen, East St. Louis, Donald E. Tucker Sr., Eldon, Mo., and Mrs. William B. (Margie Biggs) Roebuck, Thorsby, Ala.; and great-grandparents, Mrs. Marvin Tucker, Eldon, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Biggs.

formed March 19 by Dr. Oscar Hantz, an ear, nose and throat specialist, at Christian Hospital Northwest, St. Louis County.

It is the second eardrum transplant for Mrs. Henry, who had a successful transplant of the right ear in November 1975.

Following the initial surgery, Dr. Hantz commented that Mrs. Henry may be the first person in history to be born without eardrums, or a canal opening of any kind inside the ear, on which this operation has been performed.

The surgeon said the percentage of success for the second transplant probably can be determined in about two months' time.

The eardrum is the membrane located at the end of the ear canal, separating the external ear from the middle ear. Sound waves vibrate against the eardrum, allowing one to receive the sound and to hear.

"My wife is very happy about the results of the first operation and, although she wears a hearing aid, she can hear very good," Henry said Friday.

"Through her experience in this, Betty hopes that someone else can be helped by such an operation."

He noted that after an article appeared in the Press-Record concerning the initial transplant in 1975, his wife received many calls and inquiries from people who thought similar surgery could help restore their hearing.

Following the 1975 surgery, Mrs.

Henry returned to the hospital in January 1976 for skin grafting and some corrective surgery, her husband said.

"She hopes she doesn't have to go back this time," he added.

The Henrys' daughter died in a carbon monoxide accident in January 1976 and the possibility of using her daughter's eardrum for the second transplant was seriously considered.

However, the eardrum membrane had been severely damaged by the carbon monoxide and was not suitable for transplanting.

The eardrum placed in Mrs. Henry's ear cavity in the recent operation came from a donor in California.

Henry is a custodian at Collidge Junior High school.

Cleanup

participated in by approximately 1,000 Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts from the local area.

"Any other participation by area residents also will be appreciated and interested persons may call the Chamber of Commerce at 878-6400," Randolph said.

The clean-up project will be an all-out effort by the scouts, who are under the direction of Ned Freeman of the Boy Scouts and Mrs. Myra Parrish of the Girl Scouts. Each scout will receive a patch in appreciation for his or her efforts.

The scouts will be divided into groups and assigned an area to clean, supervised by an adult leader. They will pick up only trash that can be put into bags. The bags are being furnished by McDonald's.

The restaurant also will provide refreshments for the participants, along with Pepsi-Cola Alton Bottling Co., which will furnish refreshments at various locations in the clean-up areas. Cities will furnish trucks and drivers to haul off the trash collected.

It is hoped that once the cities are cleaned up, all citizens will make an effort to keep them clean, a committee member voted at Friday's planning session.

Headquarters for the clean-up project will be the First Granite City Savings and Loan office, 1529 Johnson Road, where first-aid can be obtained if needed.

In the Granite City area, clean-up efforts will be directed toward entrance areas to the city, where much trash has accumulated. The scouts will not be in the streets at any point unless under direct adult supervision.

They will also direct their efforts to Downtown Granite City and the Madison shopping area, where sidewalks will be swept.

The scouts first approached the Chamber of Commerce in October 1978 with the idea of a massive clean-up, and the Community Pride Committee joined in the planning. Citizen participation is being stressed.

Police reported there were no signs of foul play. His granddaughter, Catherine Urbeck, who lived with him, told police he was under a doctor's care and had experienced chest pains for the past week.

Mr. Summers was born in Fayetteville, Ill., and retired here 50 years. He retired in 1967 from the former Union Starch Co. plant here after 30 years as a utility worker.

Venice housing

to state my position.

"My concern is for the entire city first. Yes, we need housing, but I am opposed to certain aspects of this plan."

"I feel the area is best suited for industry, with railroad and warehouse facilities already next to the site. Industry would provide an increase in tax base and provide jobs for area residents. Subsidized housing, I do not feel, is the answer to our problems."

Housing is not the solution. This is a negative reinforcement. Our need is to increase employment, and bring up the level of employment.

"The site is also in the Madison School District and I think it should be very beneficial to our district by increasing our enrollment."

Alderman John Ervin said, "I respect your statement, Mr. Mayor. First of all, you need a place to put housing and we do not have large lots. We do have ample place for industry, and we'll have ground for housing now."

"The railroads are keeping title to plenty of ground for industry. If we get the industry, the railroads will put in the spur."

Alderman Tyrone Echols said, "We do not have industry at our fingertips, but we do have houses. We are broke. We will get at least $100,000 from sale of the land; plus, we will get taxes from the development."

"The developers are willing to maintain the recreation part of the plan at no cost to the city. If we were given a building today, we could not afford to maintain it."

Harvey Riley, representing the Madison County Urban League, read a prepared statement in support of the housing plan.

W. A. Thomas, who did the feasibility study, then spoke: "First, I will not be the developer, I represent a team of people who will supply the basis to make this plan succeed."

"The character of these units are not for poor families. They are for the average working person, a teacher, a policeman, factory worker and the elderly."

"Two months ago, when I made a presentation to you I never thought I would run into a 4-4 deadlock on a $4.3 million project."

"The question is, do you as a city want to participate in this plan? The county (Community Development) has already made a commitment to help."

"We are talking housing that, if approved, wouldn't be ready for two years. The developers are not asking for a handout. They are willing to pay for the land."

School districts are not increasing. In almost every part of this area, enrollments are decreasing. It is also known that 48 percent of the housing units in Venice are substandard."

Mary Kane, director of Madison County Community Development, said, "The question has been raised — can the housing project and the recreational center project be separated. To get HUD to approve them, they are really one, and need to be submitted as one."

Mayor Daniels then called for a roll call vote and all aldermen voted favorably.

The more than 100 persons who jammed the council chambers applauded the council's vote vigorously, and an informal party was held in celebration of the action.

Balloting

City Council, three candidates are campaigning for his seat. They are Willard Herring, Paul Fisk and Chris W. VonNida.

Voters in Ward Four have three choices — incumbent Alderman Warren Decatur, Robert Carroll Jr. or Foster Frederick.

Fifth Ward competition is between the incumbent, Mrs. Margaret Nonn, and Darmond L. Broyles.

Ward Six features a three-way race between the incumbent, Gerald "Jerry" Parmley, and challengers Ross Halbrook and Mac G. Warfield.

Granite City's Seventh Ward voters have four choices in Tuesday's balloting. Incumbent Alderman Ronald Coleman faces opposition from Michael Modrusic, Leo J. Six and George Gordon.

A list of Granite City polling places appears elsewhere in today's issue.

Venice Park voters will vote in two polling places.

Those living south of the Merchants' Bridge and in the southern portion of the park district will vote at the Lee Park Recreation Center on Broadway and other residents of the district will vote at 109 Weaver St., Venice.

Two candidates seek a six-year seat on the board — Mrs. Barbara Harrell and Enrique Lopez. The Rev. John W. Ratcliff is unopposed for a four-year unexpired term on the park board in Venice.

ELECT WILLARD HERZING ALDERMAN WARD THREE

A PROVEN LEADER

HE WILL GET THE JOB DONE
FOR THE CITIZENS OF WARD THREE

INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE

NOT A MACHINE CANDIDATE

WILLARD HERZING

HERZING CARES FOR PEOPLE

Noting that the people of the 3rd Ward need an Alderman who will be their effective voice at City Hall, Herzing points out that when the Alderman and Neighborhood Organizations work as a team great things can be accomplished. "I would like to be part of that team."

The 3rd Ward needs an Alderman who will provide leadership; an Alderman who will listen to your voice; an Alderman who will work with you as a neighbor and a friend. Herzing will be that kind of Alderman.

"I will do all in my power to bring the Neighborhoods of the 3rd Ward their share of federal dollars to preserve our neighborhoods," Herzing declares.

Herzing emphasizes that crime is today's major worry. The citizens of the 3rd Ward have to work with the police department to make the community a safer place to live. The 3rd Ward deserves an Alderman who will be the friendly spokesman for individuals to local authorities. "I will be that spokesman if you elect me your Alderman in Ward 3."

Herzing has received the endorsement of the Trades and Labor Council.

THE LIFE OF WILLARD HERZING AND HOW HE GOT TO WHERE HE IS TODAY

Nothing was ever given to Willard Herzing. He had to work with his hands and mind to achieve the things he has today. He does not say this boastfully but humbly. It serves as a constant reminder to Willard Herzing that there are no gains without pains whether in the life of an individual or the life of a city. Many time he has had to work two jobs or had to work around the clock to feed, clothe and school his seven children and to take care of his wife. This he did willingly, to provide the very best possible for his family. And if elected Alderman, he will work just as hard to provide the best for the citizens of Ward 3.

Why is Willard Herzing so strong for the working man and woman? At one time in his life when he was a young man, he rode the railroad trains as a hobo. He had to knock on many a door when he was hungry, and he is not ashamed to tell the whole world about this. He chopped wood, scrubbed floors and did any other kind of chores, just to get something to eat when he was hungry. At least this was an honest way to get food when there were no jobs available. After this he went from job to job as a construction worker until he found a steady job at the A.O. Smith Plant in Granite City.

Since he has been President of Local 1715 United Auto Workers Union, the membership and the International Union has sent him to educational centers all over the United States and Canada. These educational programs by the United Auto Workers Union teach many things, including the workings of city government. The United Auto Workers Union provide topnotch instructors for all their educational programs.

While serving as Chief of Police with the Nameoki Police Department, he completed a course of training with the F.B.I. And during his term as a Volunteer Fireman, Herzing attended courses in Fire Fighting.

As he served in his various capacities over the years and by working with other leaders who understood city government, Herzing acquired the knowledge necessary to know city government and how it works. This is why Willard Herzing will make a topnotch Alderman for you in Ward 3.

We are appealing to all citizens of Ward 3, those who go to work every day to make a living, the senior citizens and the young. It is a must that we stand together in this election. We must elect our spokesman... The rich and the powerful already have theirs. Consider very strongly to vote for Willard Herzing Alderman in Ward 3:

A closing statement from Willard Herzing to citizens in Ward 3: At this time please allow me this opportunity to thank each of you for your support and the kindness shown to me during my campaign for Alderman of your ward. I have indeed had the privilege of meeting many wonderful and concerned citizens. I shall always be grateful and thankful for the encouragement and courtesy extended by you, and for asking me to come into your nice clean homes to eat and to have coffee with you. My life has been enriched by many new acquaintances and friends. I only regret that there is not enough time left to meet all the citizens of the ward. However, if elected to serve as your Alderman, I shall continue to go door to door to acquaint myself with all Ward 3 citizens. Or hold Ward Meetings, to let you know what is going on in your ward. Also by newspaper ads which we will call "Ward 3 News" in the Granite City Press-Record.

P.S. I have faith in you and I hope you have faith in me. Regardless of how you get to the polls... REMEMBER... A vote for HERZING is a vote for you and your family. Think and vote for your friend, HERZING. Thank you.

TRUST ME WITH YOUR VOTE AND SUPPORT, I WILL NOT BETRAY YOUR TRUST!
A PROMISE: I WILL DO MY BEST AND BE A WATCHDOG FOR YOUR TAX DOLLARS!!

YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO KNOW

Patrick refutes charges

Donald Patrick, candidate for Pontoon Beach village board president, showed evidence Thursday afternoon against allegations made by his opponent, Paul Bennett, and his supporters in Thursday's Press-Record.

Patrick showed paid tax receipts and cancelled checks for taxes he paid on his mobile home at 4794 Lake Drive, which is in the village.

Taxes totaled $332 for a five-year period and were paid March 5, 1978, the document showed. "I know it is not as much as someone with a house pays, since it is a mobile home. But these should show I am a resident of Pontoon Beach and do pay taxes," he said.

Patrick also showed minutes of an Aug. 24, 1977, meeting of the Citizens' Advisory Committee for the Granite City Schools, which he now chairs.

The committee was informed of proposed school closings and the members were asked to help explain the closings to citizens.

Patrick stressed that the committee was not asked to vote on the school closings, and the minutes reflected that he said he felt closing of the schools, particularly Stalings School, would have a negative reaction.

"My opponents charge I voted in favor of the school closings on the advisory committee. It is just not true."

"There was no vote and I expressed my opposition, as reflected in the minutes. They also said I was chairman of the committee, which was not true at that date. I was elected chairman after that," Patrick said.

All of them have a secret pact

Doctors. They must all take a required course in the art of keeping people waiting.

I have yet to enter a doctor's domain where I did not have to hang around for at least 30 minutes, even when there was nothing wrong with my health.

Some people believe that the longer they have to wait, the better the doctor is. He must be, since there is such a great demand on his time.

Just between you and me, I think that all of the physicians in the world have a secret pact. They vow to keep everyone waiting. I believe that a young doctor can practice until he has signed that pact.

Waiting in a doctor's office is good for only one thing — worrying. You worry about the illness that brought you there, and how on earth are you going to pay for it.

At least if you are in the office to seek relief from some symptom, there is some justification for the wait — a reason that makes it all worthwhile. But just try to see a doctor for a reason other than illness.

I had occasion to do just that a while back. I was doing research for a story and had to ask a few questions. I called first.

"Sure. Come on out. No problem," the physician told me. What he didn't tell me was that he had an office full of patients. It took me an hour to get a half-dozen questions answered.

I really do understand that doctors are busy people. There are always more patients than physicians.

I also understand that being kept waiting is a necessary part of dealing with a doctor.

But somehow I bristle up everytime I sit in someone's office for more than 30 minutes, only to have him say, "Sorry I kept you waiting."

But I always answer the doctor in the same way: "That's okay, Doc." "I wonder why I do that?"

Growth seen for stores like Earl's

The Sporting Goods Dealer magazine — Earl Harris is proprietor of Earl's Discount Sporting Goods, a 5,000 square foot, single store, independent dealership better known within industry circles as A-H Sales.

Like so many merchants in the sports equipment business, A-H started as an army-navy surplus store, but through the years moved more and more into sporting goods.

The store has always been located in Granite City, a community across the Mississippi River from St. Louis. It moved to present quarters in downtown Granite City some seven years ago.

A-H has been a member of the National Buying Syndicate (NBS) since 1959. Recently, Harris was elected to a two-year term as director of NBS's seven-state District III.

Following are Harris' thoughts on the key challenges facing the independent dealer:

Question: In this era of inflation, the major concern of retailers at all levels is how to survive and make a profit. As we move into the 1980s, what can we expect in this regard from dealers such as yourself?

Can this be accomplished by demanding more productivity and sales?

Raising prices? Cutting expenses and inventory? A combination of factors?

Harris: The obvious answer of doing a better job and watching your expenses, everybody should be doing all the time. So there shouldn't be a great deal of improvement there.

You should constantly be aware of that. There are some other things that can be done in regard to inflation.

The independent, such as me, store, generally has a larger inventory than he should. He should re-evaluate his inventory based upon costs.

During times of inflation, the manufacturer is caught in a squeeze as much as anybody else. He is looking for people who pay their bills — who are current.

He is going to offer, the closeouts, the buys, the specials and early discounts to those merchants.

If a merchant is wise, he will keep himself current with his accounts payable. The dealer can also take advantage of anticipatory discounts with surplus cash.

This is quite often as much as one percent a month. I don't think it should reflect in cost. It is an added net profit that is going to defray some of the extra expenses that we incur.

Q. You mentioned paying your bills is important. As we move into the next year, do you think that will become an even more significant factor?

Harris: The business, particularly the athletic business, is growing tremendously. The manufacturers are more concerned with the payables than he has been in the past.

Being 90 days late is not going to be a good statistic. It's something we pride ourselves on. We are constantly in an excellent position as far as payments.

This is one way the small man can see some of the better buys being offered.

Symposium on alcohol and drugs

The first annual Symposium on Alcoholism and Drug Dependency will be held at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville April 25-27.

The three-day program is being sponsored by the Madison County Council on Alcoholism and Drug Dependency, and the Department of Secondary Education at the university.

Cost of the program is $55, and the pre-registration deadline is Wednesday, April 18.

Registration forms and checks are to be sent to the Office of Conferences and Institutes, SIUE Box 36, Edwardsville, Ill.

The various workshops are focused on developing and refining counselor knowledge and techniques for beginning and advanced counselors are available as well as sessions dealing with specific issues in the treatment of the chemically addicted.

Conference co-ordinators are Rusty Gregory, from the Madison County Council on Alcoholism and Drug Dependency, 245-7400, and Professor Rudy Wilson, Secondary Education Department, SIUE.

Walkathon scheduled

The Granite City March of Dimes walkathon will be held Sunday, April 22, and is scheduled to begin at 1 p.m. Anyone who can walk ten miles is being encouraged to participate, according to Arthur E. Menendez, walkathon chairman.

The route will start at the Wilson Park ice rink and will follow Feihling Road, make a circle through town, and return to the ice rink area down Madison Avenue.

There are scheduled rest stops along the way. Sponsor sheets are available at various schools. Walkers are to ask people to agree to pay them a certain amount for each mile walked, to aid the March of Dimes.

Floods fought by youth adult corps

The ranks of those fighting the rising floodwaters along Illinois rivers this spring have been strengthened by the addition of manpower from the Illinois Youth Adult Conservation Corps.

The Corps has sent hundreds of young men and women into flood-stricken cities along the Rock, Illinois and Kishwaukee rivers to join forces with citizens in holding back the high water.

In Kampsville along the Illinois River in Calhoun County, more than 200 Corps members were brought in from as far away as Galesburg the weekend of March 24-26.

When it appeared floodwaters would overrun temporary dikes constructed the week before, "One of the buildings threatened by the water was a structure housing prehistoric Indian artifacts taken from the nearby Koster site archaeological dig."

The sandbag dike, 3/4 of a mile long and up to eight feet high, was originally constructed by 30 members of the Corps, local citizens and personnel from the Army Corps of Engineers.

On March 24, it became apparent the dike would not be able to hold back the water and an additional call for help was sent out by Eric Jones, director of the State Emergency Services and Disaster Agency.

On the evening of March 24, 56 more IYACC enrollees were transported to the site. The following morning another 25 arrived, and on Monday, March 26, the final transfer of 102 enrollees was completed. Those at the flood site had come from as far north as Galesburg and as far south as Carbondale to aid in the work on the sandbag dikes.

Working in 12-hour shifts, the youths extended and reinforced the original dike, and constructed a backup levee in the event the main dike failed to hold.

"The Youth Adult Conservation Corps was of invaluable help to us in the Kampsville area," said Jones later. "Without them, I don't know what kind of shape the town would be in."

In addition to the dike construction, the enrollees sandbagged heavily around the building containing the archaeological artifacts and began pumping operations to keep the building dry.

Other IYACC crews were busy handling problems along the Kishwaukee, Rock and Kankakee Rivers. It is estimated that by the time the flood waters recede, IYACC enrollees will have filled more than 100,000 sandbags and totaled more than 40,000 manhours of labor.

IYACC crews in Winnebago County were responsible for filling more than 30,000 sandbags, 75 percent of the total bags filled in that area. Those sandbags were used primarily along the rivers in the Rockford area.

IYACC flood control work also included: March 8, 95 enrollees from Dixon Springs State Park and Cherokee Trail residential camp to sandbag at Cairo.

Tries to assault woman, escapes

A young woman living in the West Granite area reported last week that a man in his 20's came into her house uninvited, made an obscene suggestion to her, and then picked her up by the arms and legs and tried to carry her to the rear of the dwelling.

When she screamed, he dropped her on the floor and she ran outside, with the man in pursuit.

The intruder said he had a gun in his car and, at that time, pulled a knife from his clothing. When the woman yelled at him again, he walked away toward a nearby tavern and then left the area.

He was described as about six feet tall, weighing 155 to 160 pounds, with short brown hair and sideburns and wearing a brown, hip-length suede jacket.

Don't burn grass

By WAYNE B. SIEFERT Area Adviser, Horticulture Burning grass in wooded areas, ditches and along fences — destroys a vital process in the survival of existing grass and wildflowers.

Dry grass and dead leaves mulch the soil to prevent erosion, protect dormant plants and return humus to the soil.

Burning injures the crowns of grass plants and kills sapling trees. Germinating seed and wildflowers are destroyed as well as habitat for ground birds and small animals.

Spring care of roses should be delayed until half-inch shoots are easily found on wintering canes. Darkened stems indicate severe injury but only time will tell where winter injury stops and healthy wood begins.

After new growth begins to develop, prune back each cane to the first well developed shoot. When buds above that point seem green but still dormant, it's a good indication those buds have not been injured.

If you were able to mulch your roses before the New Year's Day freeze, do not disturb the mulch until mid-April.

At that time, gently remove the mulched material, lightly re-prune each cane and add enough permanent mulch to last through the summer.

REVENUE HEARING The Granite City Council will hold a public hearing at 7 p.m. Thursday on proposed changes in the 1978-79 revenue sharing budget. The hearing will be in the council chambers on the third floor of the Granite City Hall.

Spring is here

Photos and text by Cathey Jamison

But when will we be sure?

There is a saying that applies to our area — that if you don't like the weather, wait around and it will change.

The changeable warming and cooling tendencies have caused at least a few Quad-Cityans to hold off on the idea of putting away their winter gear.

It was just over a week ago that people were returning to the park. Since that Friday afternoon, the snow has come and gone yet again, just one more of nature's surprises.

Things should settle down now, with April being an official spring month. At least we can hope that it is finally time to put away the snowboots and pull out the tennis equipment.

Gardeners eye the sky

By CHRIS DOLL
Area Gardening Adviser
After a cold, wet weekend, gardening last week was at a standstill — awaiting some nice Illinois spring weather. All fruit plants are ready to show growth signs with the first few warm days. Vegetable gardening will have to wait for drier soils. But everything will start some time in April and here are a few items to watch for or do:

Sow early garden in early April. It's time to plant or sow all of the early season vegetables such as lettuce, peas, onions, etc. However, it's better to wait for good soil conditions than to mud the seeds in.

When a soil ball crumbles in the hand, it's okay to plant. If it remains a mud ball, wait a few days more. Plant fruits as soon as soil is ready. Early April is the ideal time for planting most fruits in this area.

Both bare-root and potted plants should have time to develop a good root system before hot, dry weather comes. Buy and plant as soon as soil conditions permit.

Start cucurbit plants indoors. Special varieties of cucumbers and melons (especially seedless watermelons) can now be started indoors. It takes three to six weeks to develop a good transplant in this family. This means they'll be ready in early May.

Start in peat pots or pellets so that the root system can be planted without disturbing the soil ball. Plant when the first true leaves are forming and when the soil is warm.

The grapes to a tight wire. Grapes are generally pruned to the long cane system and then tied to a wire trellis or fence. The more rigid the fence or tighter the wire, the better the cane and its fruit will be supported during the growing season.

This will then provide the support, aeration, and training aid for which it was intended. Use soft string or tomato twine for easy tying and easy removal at next year's pruning.

Watch for the proper time to uncover strawberries.

Strawberries are usually left covered with mulch as long as possible so as to delay bloom and prevent damage.

When following this practice, check the condition of the plants under the mulch every three or four days. When the new leaves show white or yellow coloration, it's time to uncover them. But do it on a warm day so that a frosty night won't hurt the tender plants.

Spray to stay ahead of pests. Prevention is worth more than an ounce of cure in pest control. All of the major fruit pests, including diseases, can be controlled by following the homeowners' pest control schedule.

Failure to get ahead of pests can easily mean severe loss of apples from apple scab; peaches from brown rot and worms; strawberries from rots and insects; raspberries from diseases, etc.

Don't apply insecticide sprays during bloom. Most of the fruit crops will bloom during the month, and pesticide sprays should be applied before or after bloom. You want pest control and not bee control.

Grafting and bridge-grafting can be done. Bridge-grafting or rabbit injured trees should be done as soon as the bark begins to slip. Grafting for variety change or increasing numbers can wait until mid-to-late April if desired. It is critical that the cion wood be dormant when grafted.

Plan for successive harvest of vegetables when planting. This can be done by repeated planting of a variety at weekly intervals, or by one planting of several varieties with different maturity times.

Thus, the favorite variety of radish can be planted several times, and several varieties of sweet corn can be planted on the same day.

Fertilize where needed. Fertilizers should have been applied in March, but can still be applied in early April. Check the gardening books or circulars for materials and rates.

Plant rhubarb and asparagus. These crops should be planted as soon as possible. Select a well-drained site. Incorporate compost or rotted manure in the soil before planting. Set rhubarb with crowns 2 inches below the soil surface; asparagus crowns should be set 6 to 8 inches below the surface, and covered 2 inches deep. The hole will then be filled gradually during the spring.

Sykes pinch-hits South over Marist, 4-3

Press-Record

Sports

Mon., April 2, 1979

By KEVIN ALLEN
of the Press-Record
GRANITE CITY — Granite City South is playing last year's state champions, Chicago Marist. The score is tied in the bottom of the eighth. There's one out, and South's Warriors have runners at first and second. Junior Kevin Sykes is called on to pinch-hit.

The count runs to three and two, Sykes steps in, the pitcher delivers, and Sykes connects, sending a shot to the left-center field fence. The runner at second scores easily, and South wins 4-3. Sounds like a sandlot fantasy.

But that's the way it happened. Friday night, Warriors went ahead in the sixth. Marist's Redskins tied it in the seventh and Sykes' dramatics won it in the eighth.

"Last night we had a contest to see who could stay in the cage longest, said Warrior Coach Babe Champion after the game. "It ended up between Sykes and another boy. Who knows, maybe he that little extra hitting" made the difference.

Jeff Tretter led off the eighth for the Warriors with a walk. Jim Lewis followed with a roller to Redskins pitcher Bill Procop, who threw high to first, allowing Lewis to reach safely and Tretter to advance to second. Billy Dalton then popped the ball to the left fielder.

Champion decided to insert Sykes for Greg Laub, who had been unsuccessful in three earlier attempts. Sykes made his coach look good when he drove Tretter in from second.

The triumphant climax somewhat overshadowed the Warrior's earlier heroics. In the sixth inning, with the score tied 2-2, Tretter led off with a home run that just cleared the fence close to the same spot that Sykes would later hit. Tretter, who started the game pitching for the Warriors, looked as if he might have provided the game-winner.

But the Redskins came up with a single run in the top of the seventh to tie the score. Third baseman Ed Vercinic led off with a walk, but was replaced on the basepaths by Dan Ahern after he was forced at second.

The Warriors retired the next batter, but then the Redskins' leadoff man Ray Thomas delivered a double to left, scoring Ahern from first.

The hit convinced Champion to lift pitcher John Vrenick, who relieved Tretter. Al Youn came in and retired the next batter and the Redskins in the seventh.

"We were just throwing so many pitches that we decided that even if Vrenick would have struck out that batter he was coming out," explained Champion.

A similar decision on the Redskins part allowed the Warriors to get themselves in position for the late inning surge.

For the first three innings, Redskins starting pitcher Bill Wilkney allowed only three baserunners. Two of these reached on walks. He recorded five strikeouts, including the first three Warriors in the first.

But because of the early season's cool and rainy weather, he was replaced in the fourth by Matt Mudd.

Mudd gave up two runs to the Warriors in the fourth, allowing them to tie the score.

It was Tretter again who provided the offense, as he doubled to left scoring Jeff Parker who was awarded first after he was struck by a pitch.

Warrior catcher Billy Dalton drove in the other run with a single to left which chased Blake Ambush home after he had reached on a walk and advanced to third on Treeters double.

While South started sluggishly, the Redskins scored early. In the first inning, the Redskins broke on top with a walk to shortstop Gary Wilder, who moved to second when Dave Kowczynski was hit by a pitch.

A walk to designated hitter Ron Pearowski loaded the bases. And Wildner scored on Don Reed's sacrifice fly to left.

In the third Wildner scored again after he singled, moved to second on a misplay of Kowczynski's grounder to third, and scored on Pearowski's single to left.

The Warriors brought in Vrenick in the fourth, and he blanked the Redskins until the seventh.

Steelers 4th in East Relay meet

By PETE HAYES
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record
BELLEVILLE — Granite City North finished fourth here Saturday in the running of the Belleville East Relays ... but just barely.

North and Edwardsville were tied with one event remaining — the frosh mile relay — but North was disqualified for cutting into the inside lane.

Edwardsville finished third. Belleville West won the Relays, edging crosstown rival Belleville East 126-119. It took until there was just that same frosh-mile relay remaining before the champion was crowned.

In the final standings it was: West 126, East 119, Edwardsville 104, Granite City North 96, Cahokia 66, Mount Vernon 60, Collinsville 53 and Granite City South 34.

The East Relays are run so that scores from both varsity and freshman-sophomore events are combined for a total team score. It was for that reason the mile relay in the younger division was so important to the final outcome.

For instance, Edwardsville and Cahokia received 62 and 38 of their respective points from their frosh-soph teams.

North gained most of its points from the distance relay events. The Steelers scored first places in the sprint medley, the 880 relay and the frosh-soph distance medley.

Bill Portell, Roberto Cuevas, John Kefalas and Glenn Edwards teamed up for North in the victory in the sprint medley, while Mark Jones, Tim Dudley, Cuevas and Kefalas joined forces for the 880 first place.

North also got points from a third place finish in the two-mile relay, a fourth place in the high hurdle shuttle, a fifth place in the low hurdle shuttle, a third in the mile relay, fifth in the triple jump, third in the shot put and pole vault and discus in the varsity division.

South, meanwhile, didn't fare quite as well. The Warrior thickheads managed only places in the varsity distance medley (fourth) shot put (third), pole vault (fourth) and discus (third).

North's time in the 800 relay was 1:36.9. The Steelers ran the frosh-soph distance medley (two 220's, a 440 and an 880) in 11:43.2. North's varsity distance medley team, which finished third, ran it in a time of 11:24.9.

The relay format was used throughout the meet. That is, even in field events, a total team distance or height was determined from four athletes from each team. Thus, a team would have a height of 22'6" in the high jump. North tied in that event with Mount Vernon and Belleville West for second at 21'6". East had a 23'6".

The next action for North will be today at home against Bethalto, while South won't see action again until next Saturday when it will be entered in the Mineral Area Meet at Belleville East beginning at 11 a.m. North's meet today is set to begin at 4 p.m.

STEELER VICTORY. North's Tim Dudley (right) congratulates teammate Glen Edwards after he ran the last leg for first place in the sprint medley Saturday in the Belleville East Relays.

Other sprint medley relay runners for North besides Edwards were Bill Portell, Roberto Cuevas and John Kefalas. North finished fourth in the Relays' final team standings.

North 'even' squad; South players young

By KEVIN ALLEN
of the Press-Record
GRANITE CITY — It's spring. And that seems only one thing to Granite City North boys' tennis coach John Van Buskirk. Tennis.

At North, VanBuskirk returns five members of his team from last year. Seniors Chris Roegenski, Tim Tingley, and Dave Abbott; and juniors Dave Roegenski, Chris' brother, and Jim Sparks.

These five will fill six of the seven spots on the team. Only the number three doubles team is undecided. "We have six players trying to make the three doubles," said Van Buskirk.

But there is more certainty about the other positions on the squad. Chris Roegenski will fill the number one singles spot. Tingley will play number two singles, Dave Roegenski will play number three singles, and Sparks will be at number four singles.

In doubles competition for the Steelers, the brothers Roegenski will compete at number one, Sparks and Abbott will be number two, and the number three will be a toss-up.

"I think this team is the more evenly matched that any we've had before," said VanBuskirk. "That's not saying we're going to be better than any other team, because as other teams play they improve too."

VanBuskirk said that he thought the balance on his team will make it stronger in the doubles competition. "That's where we usually pick win most of our points," he said.

The Steelers' doubles teams will attempt to lead the team to an improved season from last year's less than spectacular showing. VanBuskirk said that this team has the potential to do as well as some of the school's best teams in past years.

But VanBuskirk doesn't overemphasize the fact that most of his players are returning from last year. "We're a year older," he said, "But so is everybody else."

SOUTH
At South, coach Dick Harmon faces the prospect of trying to build a competitive team made up basically of sophomores.

Of the eight players on the squad, five of them are sophomores.

Three players from last season return this year. Senior Herman Schroeder.

'Cold' Trojans fail to place

ALTON — Madison High's boys' track team failed to place here Saturday in the running of the annual Alton Relays.

East St. Louis Senior and East St. Louis Lincoln tied for the championship, with St. Louis Soldan coming in third.

Madison might have had a point on the 440 relay, but a missed baton handoff cost the Trojans any chance of a place in that event.

Madison, the state runner-up among small schools last season, will be in action again today when it hosts Triad and Waterloo in a triangular meet at MHS beginning at 4 p.m.

Judo—American style

Being thrown across the room at a high rate of speed and hitting the floor, bones bouncing, might not seem like much fun. But for those enrolled in the Tri-City YMCA's judo classes, it is just that.

It would seem to the casual observer that judo is a dangerous kind of thing to participate in. Having one's body slammed on the floor, even with a mat, has got to hurt. Not so, according to instructor John Snyder, who is a second degree black belt in the defensive art. "One of the first things I teach my students is how to take a fall," he said, "you must relax and allow yourself to become as limp as possible."

Judo is the popularized form of jujitsu, an ancient Japanese sport somewhat like wrestling, but a lot more lethal. It was taught as a means of self defense for a long time but more recently, in the United States, judo has become a popular sport.

The sport, as it is being taught at the "Y", is one way to instill confidence, develop coordination and have a lot of fun. Those who take one course, according to Snyder, often come back again and again in order to increase their skills.

Nowadays judo is taught in a milder form from the days when the Japanese carefully guarded the secrets of the ancient art. Today, the non-lethal form of judo is used in competition under the guidance of the Amateur Athletic Union (AAU).

Snyder, who is a member of the United States Judo Association, (USJA) encourages his students to excel and pass the tests set up to rate the individual. One a certain level of expertise is reached, a color keyed belt is awarded.

People who wish to compete may do so whatever their level.

There are people of all ages enrolled in Snyder's class at the "Y". There are young children and adults, men and women. Some come with a few misconceptions about the sport, according to Snyder. "There is no such thing as a judo kick," he said, "Judo involves leverage. Strength is not a factor. The small person can be very effective against a very large competitor."

Each session begins with a series of exercises designed to stretch the muscles and teach the pivot movement. The hips are used in many judo throws and learning to rotate the hips is important. This exercise generally brings a few giggles as it seems to be a move that would be more at home on the dance floor.

Even the youngest children in the class seem to catch on quickly. "The kids are completely unafraid," Snyder said, "they seem to instinctively know how to fall. The older people have to be re-taught in that department."

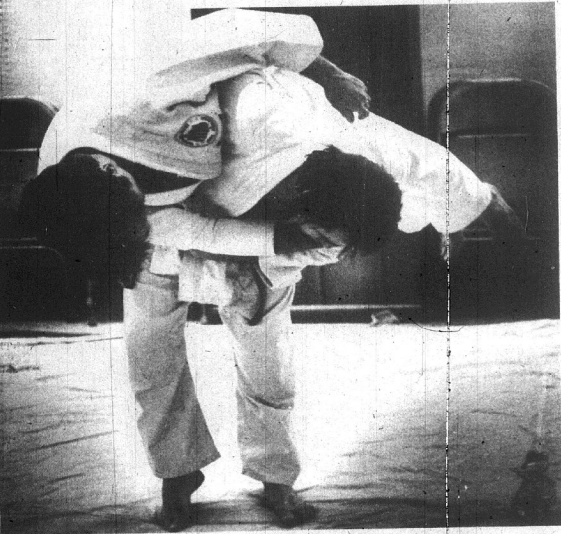

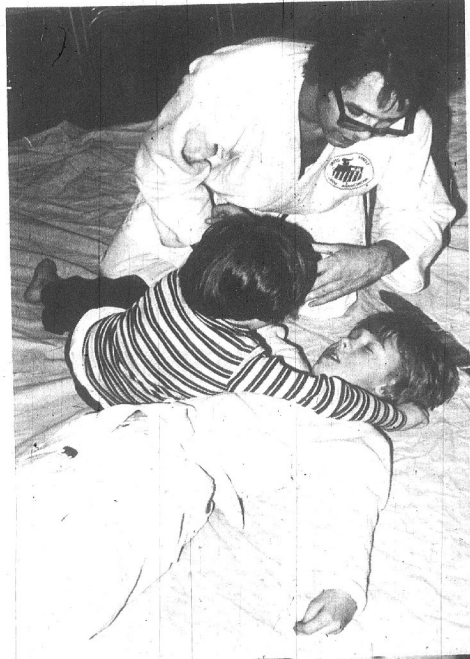

There is a lot of shouting and pounding of the mat going on during the session. The whole thing sounds very medieval, but both noises have a purpose.

The shout, called "Kia" is used for two reasons. First, it causes most of their air in the lungs to be expelled, causing less impact pain due to pressure. Secondly, it causes one to tense up, making it easier to move all parts of the body together.

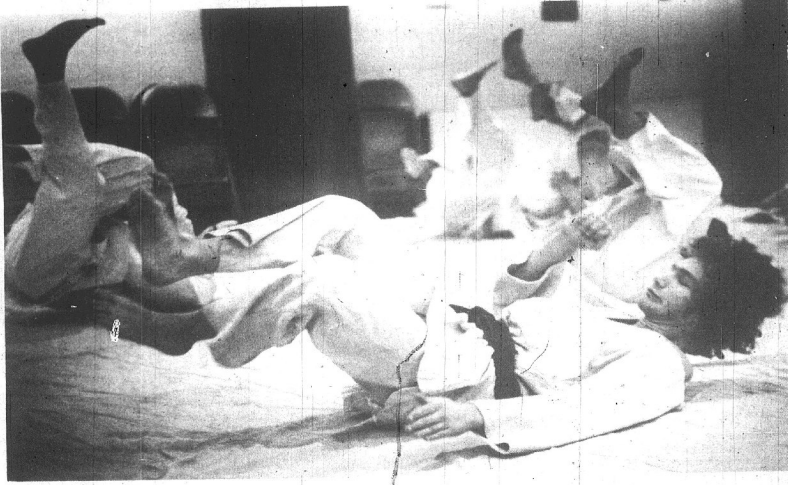

The slap is used to help the student to learn to distribute body weight evenly upon impact. At the point of the slap, the body should be all the way on the mat.

All of the shouting and slapping also makes judo more exciting and interesting, both for the participants and the spectators. The classes at the "Y" are on a four week basis. For more information, contact Ed Mercer at 878-7200.

GC breaks the reigns of 'west side' soccer

By PETE HAYES
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record
GRANITE CITY — Picture this:

It's Saturday afternoon. It's pouring rain. The temperature is hovering around 40 degrees. Got the picture? It's pretty miserable, right?

That's right, unless you're one of thousands of boys in Granite City, Collinsville and surrounding communities who play soccer.

Yes folks, in that downpour are a bunch of little kids running up and down a field in their undershorts kicking a little black and white ball.

Soccer. It's hailed as the sport of the future. It's roots are deep in the history of Granite City. The town's high school teams are annually among the best in the state. In fact, three straight state championships have emerged from Granite City South.

Soccer. It's criticized by some as the downfall of other sports in Granite City. Some of the members of the town would rather some of the well-conditioned soccer players be dribbling a basketball year-round and catching passes during the fall instead of kicking that little black-and-white ball around.

But the local kids have had really nothing to play for once they reach a certain age (16 or over), unless they're on a high school team. But now that's changing.

Southern Illinois finally has been allowed to break free of the reigns of Missouri and participate in an Illinois Select Team process.

It's the Select Team format from which a large part of the Olympic squads are picked. Let me explain:

For years, soccer players in this area have had to take a back seat to St. Louis players, and try out for the Missouri Select Team. The select team play teams from other states in the region in a round-robin format. From those state teams, a regional select team is chosen. That regional squad goes to a national tournament and faces other regional teams. From that journey, the National Select team is picked. It's from that squad that the Olympic Committee finds players it wants to try out for the Olympic team.

Finally, through the efforts of several Granite Cityans who wish to remain anonymous at present, there will be Granite Cityans on the Illinois Select Team.

There actually will be two teams. A squad for boys ages 16 and under and those 19 and under. According to Illinois High School Association Executive Secretary Laverle Astroth, a player's eligibility for further high school play will not be affected if he takes part in the select player format.

Finally, Granite City won't have to take a back seat to St. Louis. While there is a larger number of talented players on the west side (I just love to call them "west side"), there are some players over here who can hold their own against them. Take David Fernandez at South for instance. He could play for any high school team in the nation with the skills he possesses. No doubt about that.

The states in the same region, as Illinois are Michigan, Missouri, Indiana, Wisconsin and Ohio. The regional tournament will probably be held in Madison, Wisconsin in May.

But first, the state select team must be selected. The way it will be picked is by a Southern Illinois vs. Northern Illinois series of games.

Area high school coaches have been contacted and will send the players to the workouts they feel will represent their program best.

It's about time. And it should be very interesting.

Hennrich and Redbirds begin 1979 campaign

Special to the Press-Record

BLOOMINGTON — A lot of baseball players go south this time of the year to avoid the snow and cold weather. Illinois State University pitcher Dar Townsend came north.

When his family moved to the Fort Lauderdale area in Florida, the former Arlington Heights athlete elected to continue his education in the Midwest. ISU coach Duffy Bass, for one, is glad he did.

"Dar makes every effort to get the most out of himself, and as a tri-captain he has been a steady influence on the team," Bass says.

Townsend's main assignments are as a relief pitcher and as the team's designated hitter. His talent doesn't stop there, however. He can also catch and play in the infield.

TOM HENNRICH

"In New Orleans (on the ISU southern trip) Dar did a good job stepping in at third when our regular man was hurt," Bass said.

Townsend's versatility was displayed in that doubleheader at the University of New Orleans. He was in the batting order as the designated hitter, and pitched in relief the final two innings. The result: a base hit, two runs scored and the pitching victory in a 5-3 extra inning triumph.

In the second game, he played third base before being called to the mound in relief again for two innings. This time, however, he took the loss in a 4-3 decision. "I wasn't as fortunate as in the first game," he admitted.

Townsend seems content in his role. "Sure everybody would like to start," he says, "but in relief I can get into a lot of games, and I enjoy that type of pressure."

The Redbirds, who had a 3-8 record on their spring trip, were snowed out of a scheduled doubleheader last Sunday. Their next outing is a doubleheader Saturday at the University of Evansville. "There is a lot of young talent on the team," Townsend says. "With experience we could have a very respectable season. Right now we're fighting the elements as much as the opponents."

The Redbirds do field a young lineup. Batting leaders this spring are sophomore centerfielder Mike Mayerck (Arlington Heights) at .378, sophomore second baseman Mike Bock (Ripon, Wis.) at .375, junior rightfielder Paul Kramer (Springfield Southeast) .345, freshman shortstop Tom Hennrich (Granite City South) at .333 and freshman leftfielder Wes Schoenberg (Rockford Gullford) at .333.

The team's only seniors are the other two tri-captains, pitchers Cliff Augustine (Melrose Park) and Tim Millner (New Lenox).

Baseball rained-out

GRANITE CITY — It's that time of the year again. The birds are singing, the flowers are starting to bloom. . . . And Mother Nature is doing her best to stop area high school baseball teams from getting their games in. Of Mama Nature did a job here Saturday on Granite City South. The Warriors, who play on perhaps the best-conditioned diamond in the area, still couldn't play their scheduled doubleheader against St. Louis University High because of rain and wet grounds. At present, no definite plans have been made to reschedule the game.

Social night for adult group

Forty members and guests of St. John United Church of Christ's New Ecclesia Adult Organization participated in a pot luck dinner and "crazy bowling" last week.

The evening's activities consisted of bowling each frame in an unusual manner, such as seated in a chair, holding hands with a partner, or closing one's eyes while rolling the ball.

Two "Scotch doubles" games also were bowled at Brunswick Tri-Mor before the group event to the church fellowship hall for dinner and presentation of awards.

John Petrillo received an award for attaining the highest score in bowling and Mrs. Bea Rittenhouse won an award for the lowest score in the doubles match.

New Ecclesia is planning a dinner-theater outing on the Goldenrod Showboat in May as its next activity.

5 escape house and deadly fumes

A Jerden Avenue family narrowly escaped death when fumes from the furnace and hot water heater in their home leaked into the home when they were sleeping early Sunday.

Joseph Smolar, 50, of 2545 Jerden Ave., awakened experiencing pains he thought may be a heart attack. He awakened his wife for help and she said she also was ill and could not get up.

Neither could walk well and lost consciousness repeatedly. The noise woke their son, Tim Smolar, 20, who tried to assist them but who also lost consciousness frequently, it was reported.

The son managed to get to a telephone and call his brother-in-law, Larry Zotti, 44 Foreman Court, who then called for an ambulance. Ambulance attendants reported that when they arrived, they found the house filled with gas or carbon monoxide and described the family members as "helpless."

Taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center were Mr. and Mrs. Smolar, Tim Smolar, 12-year-old Laura, and Jennifer, 5, a grand-daughter who was spending the night with the Smolars.

Authorities checked the house and found a faulty vent from the furnace and hot water heater had allowed fumes from combustion to fill the house.

6 hurt in accident

Six persons were injured when the station wagon of John Montgomery, 70, of 2612 E. 25th St., and the auto of Michael Cella, 18, of 4057 Sara St., collided on Route 3 at St. Thomas Road at 8:10 p.m. Sunday.

Montgomery was issued a ticket alleging he failed to yield the right of way when he drove onto Route 3 from St. Thomas Road in front of the northbound car.

He was taken by Granite City ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center, where he was admitted for observation with a possible broken rib.

His wife, Marie, 68, also taken by ambulance to the medical center, was released after treatment for injuries to her left shoulder and neck.

Cella and two passengers in his car were taken by ambulance to the medical center. He was admitted with multiple cuts over his right eye and abrasions to his right forearm and both legs.

Robert Coreaux, 19, of 2701 Whippoorwill Lane, suffered pain to his right ankle and was released after X-rays were taken. Brian Grupe, 19, of 2902 Nameoki Drive, suffered abrasions to his left lower leg and was released after treatment.

George Bartz, 18, of 52 Shirlevin Drive, Arlington Heights, also a passenger in Cella's auto, suffered minor injuries.

Portell wanted his vote help, Hagnauer says

Madison County Board Chairman Nelson Hagnauer of Granite City today responded to charges that Clayton "Jug" Harrison's campaign for Granite City street superintendent is part of "a Schuler-Hagnauer machine" because Hagnauer went to Harrison's fund-raising dinner.

Quilt show will open

Practical and yet creative, the patchwork quilt has remained a handicraft unique to America. Family patchwork quilts were the forerunners of photograph albums, visually telling stories about the ancestors who used them.

Hundreds of "stories" will be available for the public to view at the third annual quilt show presented by the Folklore Archive at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

According to John Oldani, associate professor of English language and literature at SIUE and coordinator of the Folklore Archive, patchwork quilting is a practical expression of creativity and is one of America's contributions to the world of folk art. "It's the ideal folk art because it's utilitarian and functional. It's also decorative. The women who quilted in pioneer days made something from nothing. They made works of art that helped keep them warm," he said. Patchwork quilts are generally made from leftover scraps of material.

Hearing on state's future

The Task Force on the Future of Illinois will hold a public hearing forum Thursday, April 5, at the SIUE University Center. The forum will be held in two sessions, the first at 2:30 p.m. and the second at 7:30 p.m.

The Task Force has, for the past several months, been reviewing research and studies on current trends and future state resources. Board studies have been provided to the Task Force by various state agencies, boards and commissions. Results of these efforts have been compiled into the report, "A Working Paper on the Future of Illinois."

The Task Force is now seeking additional information and comment about the future of Illinois.

Public hearing forums are being held across the state to provide citizens, local officials and organizational representatives an opportunity to discuss current trends, future implications of these trends, and what role the state should play in the future.

Three hearings are scheduled for Tuesday. The first will be at 10 a.m. on the north access road from Interstate 270 west of Route 200 north and the Midwest Motel, Lacy Boyer and Robert E. Richardson are requesting rezoning of about 10 acres from R-3 single family residential to a B-3 highway business district. They also seek a special use permit to use an existing building for residential purposes.

At 10:35 a.m. Tuesday, the board will meet at 2303 VFW Ave., State Park Place, where Homer L. Wyatt is requesting a special use permit to operate a beauty shop in a residence. At 11 a.m. Tuesday, a hearing will be held at 2024 Harris Ave., where Marina Arosemena wants a special use permit to place a mobile home for up to five years. After the three hearings, the board will meet at the Madison County Courthouse to make recommendations for action by the Madison County Board later this month.

One hearing is scheduled for Thursday, beginning at 10:30 a.m. at 210 Hill St. Eagle Park Acres, where Dorothy Williams is requesting a special use permit to use a mobile home for a permanent residence.

Miss Spieker becomes Mrs. Richard Lucido

SPELLING BEE WINNERS. St. Elizabeth Catholic School participants, from left, Kathy Juhasz and Christine DeRuntz, both in the seventh grade who won first and second place respectively in the local Knights of Columbus contest. Both girls advanced to the Knights of Columbus regional spelling bee on Sunday, April 1, in Highland, Ill.

RESTAURANT TOUR BY BROWNIE TROOP

Madison Brownie Troop 888 took a tour of the Pizza Hut last week. The 19 girls who participated were shown procedures for making different size pizzas, the freezer, storage areas and equipment.

The girls were allowed to help build their own pizzas, which they later enjoyed with sodas. Mrs. Lynda Skoklo and Mrs. Carol Watson, co-leaders, were assisted by Mrs. Georgia Stawar.

Brownies attending included Jennifer Allison, Nicole Avila, Alicia Bell, Tanya Brown, Julia Calvin, Nicole Coleman, Tiffany Dollar, Jennifer Hargrave, Michelle Herring, Meloney Howell, Shannon Hughes, Charlene Kullum, Susan Mangiaracino, Michelle Murphy, Staci Stawar, Laura Ziesset, Christine Canton, Melanie Skoklo and Lisa Reeder.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Spieker, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Spieker, 1615 Berkley Lane in Belleville, became the bride of Richard J. Lucido, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Lucido Jr., 3401 Franklin Ave., in a candlelight ceremony, March 17, at St. Augustine of Canterbury Church in Belleville.

The Rev. Rick Stolz officiated at the double-ring ceremony at 5 o'clock in the evening.

Music was provided by Dolly Roth, organist, and Steve Espamer, vocalist and guitarist.

The bride chose a gown made of white tulle over taffeta. Silk Venise lace outlined the Queen Anne neckline, enhanced the sheer bishop sleeves and decorated the fitted bodice of the gown.

Her floor length dress featured a double flunce which formed an apron effect in back of the semi-full skirt which fell into a chapel train.

She wore a French-hemmed circular fingertip veil of bridal illusion trimmed in matching lace, and secured by a profile headpiece.

She carried a circular bouquet of white elephant's roses and greenery.

Matron of honor was Mrs. William Ren, the bride's sister. Bridesmaids included Mrs. Joseph Emke, the bride's sister, Mrs. Tim Thompson, the groom's cousin, Mrs. Gordon Meyer and Miss Annette Emke, the bride's niece. The flower girl was Miss Nikki Lucido, the groom's niece.

All were attired in identically styled gowns of light green floral print fashioned in a princess style with V-shaped necklines and gathered bodices. Each attendant held bouquets of carnations in two shades of pink with lavender accents.

The groom chose Bernard Stratman as best man. Groomsmen and ushers were George Taylor, a cousin of the groom; Tim Thompson, Joseph Wildesien, John J. Spieker, the bride's nephew, John F. Spieker, a brother of the bride, and Dennis Lucido, the groom's brother.

Ringbearer was Kevin Taylor, the groom's godchild. A rehearsal dinner was given at Fischer's Restaurant in Belleville. A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at St. Augustine Church hall.

The bride is a 1970 graduate of Althoff Catholic High School, and a 1972 graduate of Belleville Area College. She is a member of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority and is employed as a nuclear medicine technologist at St. Joseph Hospital in Alton. The groom graduated from Assumption High School in 1967, St. Louis University in 1971 and Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville in 1974. He is a supervisor of Special Education for the Alton School District.

While some manufacturers have begun using aluminum tubing in their heat pump and condensing coils, Lennox has stayed with proven dependable copper tubing. Copper costs a little more, but the advantages are worth it.

Time for a change, no matter who wins street election

Events of the past several years complicate the decision to be made by voters in choosing the Granite City superintendent of streets for the next four years.

The public overwhelmingly rejected the City Council vote to make the position appointive rather than elective, in effect voicing their confidence in Supt. Lionel Portell after the Council majority had expressed a lack of confidence.

There is nothing wrong with voters enthusiastically backing the man of their choice. If he "parts his hair" the way they like, he can remain in the job forever.

But an incredibly inadequate job has been done on streets and sewers, and even Supt. Portell acknowledges there have been many shortcomings. Thus, voters' happiness with him is somewhat ironic, and appears to require acceptance of his belief that it is primarily those who have held the pursesstrings who have dictated a performance far below an acceptable level.

Major equipment purchases have been delayed by the City Council in some instances, and one year there was an overtime restriction as part of a budget-balancing attempt. But men and machines have been provided in vast numbers, and it is far from clear that those men and pieces of equipment have been utilized to fullest effectiveness, that Mr. Portell has gotten the most out of them. The winter season in 1978-79 was a real horror story of inaction and hazards, and this spring's high-water worries are genuine.

The biggest negative factor in his third-term candidacy is that he has not exercised the vision, will and skill to assure that vehicles, facilities, streets and sewers are maintained in the best possible fashion and instead has settled for rundown, dirty, deteriorated and non-functioning conditions and results. He is likeable and well-intentioned, but surely it must be fair to, at some point in his career, judge the actual performance level.

The biggest "plus" factors in the Portell candidacy are that he is a superior vote-getter, that voters have no way of knowing whether his rival would do any better as superintendent, and that Mr. Portell's image of a "fighter against politicians" is highly attractive.

It is our belief that "buck passing" of responsibility has been excessive, that the superintendent himself must be held accountable, and that it is a myth that persons outside the street department are preventing it from sparkling. There are countless examples of inefficiency and non-effort that have developed because nobody at the department had "we can do it" commitment and intensity.

All of which doesn't change the likelihood of voters approving a third term tomorrow.

But it is "time for a change." If Mr. Harrison wins, we hope he does a good job in the office. If Mr. Portell wins, we hope he does well and we call on him and others to help reorganize the department and its presently lacking commitment to excellence.

Fisk active in neighborhood, city, home improvements

Third Ward voters in Granite City tomorrow will decide on a successor to Alderman Clyde Boyd, who is retiring from the City Council.

The Press-Record suggests the election of Paul Fisk, based on his record of community service and interest. A Sunday school superintendent for ten years, the 22-year Meat Cutters member is president of the East Granite Home Improvement Association and is a member of the Granite City Home Rehabilitation Board.

A massive campaign has been waged for the Council position by Willard Herzog, Auto Workers Local 1715 president and former Nameoki police chief. His tendencies to take extreme stands and to use intimidating tactics have been accompanied in recent years by a steady accumulation of raw power on other issues. The combination with governmental authority, such power could lead to a high degree of control or influence over the course of events. Regardless of how capable or well-intentioned any individual might be, one-man rule needs to be avoided.

Concerned that city may decay

To the Editor:
In East St. Louis, Alton, Ore., Obea Nester, American Steel and Owens-Glass have closed. Granite City has lost General Steel, Union Starch, Laclede Steel and part of the Army Depot.

The City of East St. Louis is a town of the past. Granite City could well become a town of the past.

We need new government and motivation to help our town start to grow again.

I will pledge my full cooperation, not only to the people of Ward Two, but to all citizens of Granite City when elected.

You, the public, have the last say in making these policies work, at the ballot box.

By using this system, you will show the people of your ward what you want. Every complex city has a bureaucracy—a body of officials and administrators who are responsible for making and carrying out city policies and decisions.

Theoretically, there are two types of politics, one based upon greed and the other based on sincere interest by our officials in the betterment of our town and its people.

When I am elected, I will work for all my constituents—some with their approval, and some without.

I will do what I feel is best for the majority, because in a true democracy the public indicates the policy.

Do we want Granite City to end up like East St. Louis?

The writing is on the wall.

JOSEPH MCGINNIS

Committeeman voices preference

To the Editor:
This letter is addressed to the voters in the 5th precinct and the 3rd Ward.

In the upcoming city election on April 3, I am strongly endorsing Paul Fisk for alderman of the 3rd Ward.

Having known Paul and worked with him for 17 years, I have found him to be an energetic hard worker. We need a man of his capabilities who will work for the people in our ward and for Granite City as a whole.

ANDY TIMKO
5th Precinct Committeeman

Paul Fisk is a church-going man, a gentleman, and will be an asset to the city as he represents the people.

He is a man with his own mind and will always be open to the people, ready to listen, to speak the facts, and to act accordingly.

I believe he will do all within his power, as one man on the council, to help and to represent the people. He will be a fine alderman.

Candidate aids many

To the Editor:
Voters of Granite City

Ward Four, I don't believe who are fortunate, as the paper stated we are, for having so many incumbents re-running.

On practically every issue, we need more and more money. I personally don't see very many improvements.

At this time of the year, about all you get is a lot of promises.

I have helped a lot of people such as senior citizens, veterans, or anyone who has asked me, even though they don't live in my precinct, or even in Granite City.

I am elected as Alderman of Ward Four, regardless where people live, I am as close as their phone.

Portell not doing job

To the Editor:
Citizens of Granite City

as a former employee of the Street Department, I find it quite humorous that the present superintendent of streets claims what a good job he has done.

It's obvious by looking at the streets—and everything he is supposed to maintain—that the job is not getting done.

The time has come for the citizens of Granite City to get out and elect a man who will do the job. Let's give Clayton "Jug" Harrison a vote.

DANNY RAPOFF

Union leader strong, dedicated, fair, hard-working and effective

To the Editor:

We the undersigned would like to comment on your article concerning Willard Herzog in March 29 edition of the Press-Record.

We are currently serving with Willard on the Bargaining and Grievance Committee of Local 1715, United Auto Workers Union. We know Willard to be a fair and exceptional union leader, a man who has helped many people in his capacity as union president of Local 1715.

He, as a union leader, had made tremendous improvements in benefits and wages for those he represents in Local 1715. Under Willard's leadership, the senior members of our local union were able to retire as early as age 57 with an excellent pension and full medical benefits.

Under Willard's administration, our members had to wait until they were age 65 to retire because they did not have medical coverage and only a small pension that would not cover their minimum needs.

They not only have a good pension and excellent medical benefits today, but also a company-paid dental plan thanks to Willard Herzog.

Listed below are some of the major accomplishments of Willard Herzog's administration:

1. Improved medical benefits for all employees, both active and retired.

2. A new dental plan for both active and retired employees.

3. Restored the full cost-of-living.

4. A Christmas holiday which gives our members an additional seven days off with pay at Christmas time, which no other union in Granite City has.

5. Two personal days employees may take when they wish. This is in addition to the Christmas holidays and other regular holidays.

6. Improved accident and insurance weekly benefits.

7. Improved survivor income insurance.

8. New 30-and-out feature in pension plan which allows employee to retire with 30 years' service at age 57.

9. Drug plan. Company pays 80 percent of medical prescriptions for drugs after employee pays first $25.

10. Herzog was sent to school by the United-Auto Workers so that he could help the members with their Workmen's Compensation problems, and he has become an expert at handling these cases. When people are injured in the plant, Willard sees that the injured person receives full benefits and a settlement, at a later date, if the injury warrants it, under the law of the State of Illinois.

11. Picnics. The last picnic that was held for the members and their families at Highland, Ill., was attended by more than 7,000 happy persons. This is another program instituted under UAW.

We have known and worked with Willard Herzog for 25 years. We know that he is a good leader and has compassion for people. He will help his bitterest enemy, when they are in need of help.

In the last union election, when Herzog ran for reelection for president, his friends and co-workers voted for Herzog and 18 for his opponent. This election was held by secret ballot and polls were open for 12 hours. Herzog must be doing his job or he would not have received such a large majority of votes. You must remember, this is Herzog's fourth term as president of Local 1715 UAW.

These are just some of the benefits obtained for our members under the leadership of Herzog. Willard also is responsible for the yearly Christmas collection for the benefit of our sick members.

He also started and has continued every year he has been in office a Christmas dinner for all of our retired members. Local 1715 is the only union in this area to do this.

There is no doubt that Willard Herzog is a strong, dedicated, hardworking leader. He has to be to obtain benefits from the company for his people.

If he was a weak man, our members would not have the benefits they and their families now enjoy. He will also be as strong a leader for the people in Ward Three as he is for the people he represents in Local 1715.

He is a man who can organize people and get things done.

14 committeemen, Fifth Ward aldermen favor Lionel Portell

To the Editor:
In the time of the year to examine the candidates for public office in the City of Granite City.

On April 3, you the voters will be asked to choose a superintendent of streets. It is a pleasure to recommend Lionel Portell.

Just a short time ago, politicians, a part of the "city hall gang," attempted to profit off your right to vote for superintendent of streets.

Lionel Portell vigorously opposed this move and the people overwhelmingly voted to retain this important elective post. Those same city hall politicians now support Lionel's opponent.

Lionel Portell has done an outstanding job. Recently, because of an early winter, the mayor and aldermen voted additional funds to add equipment and manpower to his staff—a move that was long overdue.

Lionel's appointment was able to immediately accelerate a program to clean up our streets and make necessary repairs from the severe winter of this year.

It has been demonstrated over the past days that if he is a good leader, he will be provided for this important department by the mayor and a majority of the aldermen.

Lionel Portell will see that the job is done. Let's retain Lionel Portell as superintendent of streets.

City needs Portell in public office

To the Editor:

Once again the time has come to elect a superintendent of streets and once again I feel sickened by the things I hear and what I read in the papers. My name is Debbie (Portell) Larsen and I would like to say a few words in behalf of my father, Lionel Portell.

I am a school teacher and have moved away from Granite City. I love my hometown and the people in it, and therefore, I still stay involved with the happenings in our city.

I recently read an article written by Mr. Fry which upset me greatly to think that he is so misinformed. I have something that has been on my heart for a long time that I have to say.

As a family member, I have been directly involved with my father's position for many years now. I have seen two elections come and go and I've been very thankful that the people of Granite City have used good judgment in electing my father.

I have always held nothing but the highest esteem for Dad and his character. My love and admiration of him have never faltered. He has always been a good example for me.

I wonder how many children totally respect their fathers as I do mine? He has been a hard worker and has done his best at anything he attempts. The hasty remarks said during the election time are certainly uncalled for.

I believe it is time for everyone to look at the election as a whole. The election is not a candidate who is always mudslinging or cutting down his opponent to try to make himself look better.

Many times I've wondered why Dad goes through all of this and then I have to stop and think. "Thank God he does. What would happen if we didn't have good, hard-working, honest people such as him in our elected positions."

I am urging the people of Granite City to once again use their good judgment in re-electing a highly qualified experienced man who is willing to keep working hard for us, my Dad, Lionel Portell.

That is why it is unfair for anyone to criticize him for street conditions that were a result of this bad winter. The town I live in has the very same winter damage problems.

When the mayor and council do not fund for the necessary equipment to maintain the streets, what right do they have to complain? Could his opponent have done better under the same circumstances?

My father is not a miracle worker. I only know of one man who ever was. I never put much faith in a candidate who is always mudslinging or cutting down his opponent to try to make himself look better.

Gov. Thompson met with leaders of Illinois craft unions Wednesday and signed an extension of the prevailing wage agreement for state employees. About 1,100 employees who are members of craft unions are affected by the pact, which calls for them to pay the craft union members the prevailing contract wage rate in the geographic area in which they work.

The Illinois House voted 121-18 on Wednesday that it raise the minimum age for buying beer and wine from 19 to 21—home rule cities also would have to adhere to the 21 age.

Circumstances and location of an auto door slamming incident are not publicized, Jeff C. Arnold of Birch Avenue said this week. He will deny the allegation at a hearing in April.

A Madison County assessment clerk has resigned for mistakenly publishing last year's property tax bills in part to Wood River Supervisor Rodger Elbitt. Two others submitted unrelated resignations, and the wife of the employee blamed for the mistake also resigned Monday.

The MacArthur Bridge has been closed to autos due to deck deterioration and repair bids are being sought.

An appellate court in Chicago has ruled unconstitutional an Illinois law banning possession of small amounts of heroin, cocaine, LSD, morphine and certain depressants, noting that the 1-to-10-gram penalty exceeds the 1-to-3-year maximum sentence for drug delivery.

Nearly all real estate property isn't assessed properly and some of it is valued more than four times as high as it should be, Rep. Cal Skinner (R, Crystal Lake) says in reviewing the Department of Local Government Affairs figures.

Barrels stored at a landfill south of Madison, originally disclosed by the Press-Record, are being removed by the state pollution threat. The barrels contain plant sludge, and water has been found in trenches designed to contain them.

The number of sewer breaks in Granite City are excessive, due to poor planning or poor engineering or poor construction or a combination of these factors. To repair these numerous Attempts to find a buyer failed, and the Metro-East Journal ended its 90-year history with his Friday, March 30, issue.

A U.S. Supreme Court ruling outlawing stopping motorists not suspected of crimes is expected to have no effect in this area. Sheriff Emil Toffant says cars aren't being halted without probable cause.

A bill requiring five-cent deposits on all beverage bottles and cans was killed by state legislators Thursday.

The Illinois Department of State Police is conducting an investigation by the SIUE police department.

It's either Portell himself or the workers idling. Who's to blame? He didn't bother to mention the conditions of the streets in neighboring towns. I am positive he didn't think of this trick all by himself. Someone is helping him instigate deals of this kind because of the upcoming election. Portell should be made to apologize to the people of Granite City.

EDWARDS RESIDENT

Temporarily sidelined by ailment

To the Editor:

I wish to address the voters of the 6th Ward and urge them not to come down to door seeking their votes.

For the past three weeks, I have been under doctor care for calcium deposits on my heels.

I am unable to walk the ward to ask for support in the upcoming election for alderman.

I have never taken resident's support and vote lightly at any time. I would most best each door asking in person for continued support and votes for may re-election as alderman.

Each polling place is the same as in the November election. The election date is Tuesday, April 3.

Street duties being neglected

To the Editor:

Poor, poor, pitiful "Portell!" He sure tells a heart-breaking tale. Can you imagine anyone going to all surrounding towns, measuring mileage of streets and getting the number of pieces of equipment used?

Hasn't he learned by this time that there is such a thing as maintenance and repair of the equipment we have?

He wouldn't have needed heavy equipment to fill the potholes. One thing for sure, we won't have to go to the moon to see craters, and it's not all because of our winter snows and weather.

Another four years of his neglect and we will be traveling on country-like roads.

If the mayor and aldermen are slow to allocate the money, then the street department has to let other departments work late or let the sewer repair lapse.

It's that simple. Also, is it possible that the water in the picture is in an area where there is no sewer?

Don't blame the street superintendent for what evidently is no fault of his. I think he has done the best he could under the circumstances. What's more, I don't think anyone else could have done better.

Fewer seeking directory aid

Calls to directory assistance in January were 10.37 percent below those of a year earlier, according to a new report Illinois Bell filed with the Illinois Commerce Commission.

The directory assistance report also indicated that Illinois Bell customers received $817,113 in credits as part of the first month of the plan.

The company's directory assistance charging plan, approved on a two-year experimental basis by the commission in November, became effective with billing dates on and after Jan. 4.

Crediting of customers' bills began with the Jan. 4 bills. A credit of 25 cents per main telephone line per month is given to each residential and business customer with the following exceptions: the credit does not apply to Centrex customers, PBX trunks, coin lines and hotel and hospital lines.

The 25-cent credit is made every month regardless of the customer's directory assistance usage. The directory assistance charging plan allows residential and most business customers eight free calls to the directory assistance during each monthly billing period. Customers are charged 20 cents for each call over the eight-call allowance.

The company began counting calls on billing dates on and after Jan. 4. Charges for excess calls appeared on bills dated Feb. 4 and thereafter.

Information on the number of customers billed during February and the amount billed will be included in the directory assistance monitoring report. Illinois Bell will file with the commission by April 15.

The January monitoring report included the following statistics:

—Directory assistance calls made within the 312 area code (roughly the Chicago metropolitan area) dropped 14.18 percent from 19,130,470 in January 1978 to 16,417,698 in January 1979.

The total number of calls handled by directory assistance throughout Illinois Bell territory dropped 10.37 percent from 27,501,485 in January 1978 to 24,649,330 in January 1979.

—Residence customers received credits totaling $894,856 in their January bills.

—The total directory assistance charging plan credit applied to Illinois Bell customers' bills during January was $817,113.

17% drop in Nameoki Town appropriations

By trimming all appropriations "to the bone," the Nameoki Town Board of Trustees has approved 1979-80 fiscal year budgets which are 17 percent below the budgets for the previous fiscal year.

Budgets approved for all township functions, including town and highway purposes, were approved following a public hearing last week in the town hall.

The new budgets total $560,931, or $115,580 less than the budgets totaling $676,511 in the 1978-79 fiscal year.

The new budget totals, with last year's appropriations in parenthesis, were: town fund $142,671 ($140,661); general assistance $92,970 ($140,300); municipal retirement $20,000 ($20,000); anti-recession fiscal assistance $335 ($11,000); revenue sharing $82,700 ($79,500); road and bridge $125,000 ($144,550); special hard road $77,255 ($120,500); and municipal retirement for the highway department $20,000 ($20,000).

Change made by the board following the public hearing did not alter the budget totals, although some new categories were funded with monies transferred from other categories.

A $3,700 budget item was created for environmental and health contract work with funds taken from maintenance of roads and from repairs of machinery in the road and bridge budget.

Other minor changes were made in the road and bridge budgets, but the totals, as posted, were not changed.

Also during the meeting, it was alleged a township highway department truck had been seen dumping rock in the parking lot for a private fishing pond near Horseshoe Lake.

Highway Commissioner Frank Molebich said he was unaware of the accusation. A truck driver for his department then said he had dumped a load of rock in that area, but it was for a 60-foot easement there that the township is to maintain.

The board also discussed the problem of dogs running loose in the township, particularly in the State Park area. It was noted one woman there had been attacked by a dog, and an armed man nearby had then shot and killed the dog to stop the attack.

No election signs allowed on poles

A letter from the Illinois Power Company to the mayor and City Council of Venice, which was read last week, asked that any and all candidates cease putting election posters on electric power poles.

The company said this is expressly forbidden and was dangerous to the men who have to climb the poles.

Venice Alderman Tyrone Echols, a candidate for mayor, moved that the letter be accepted and placed on file.

A citizen called to the attention of the Venice City Council that a group known as the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) had been organized and chartered in the Venice area. Representatives of the group asked if they would be entitled to any senior citizen funding, and City Attorney Harry E. Hartman informed the council he felt the group could be considered in the next fiscal year, beginning May 1.

A building permit in the amount of $5,000 for general remodeling was approved for Jerry Maerz to do work on property at 1023 Broadway at Market Street, a barbecue stand.

A $2,000 building permit for an additional room was approved for Helen R. King, 117 Market St., Venice.

The council approved a 60-day leave of absence for Venice Police Officer James V. Harrell, from April 25 until June 25, in order for him to take a special job in the St. Louis area.

The council also approved six firemen to attend a one-day training course in the handling of special chemicals that are transported by railroad.

James Reidelberger, a candidate for mayor, was recognized to speak by Acting Mayor Phillip Daniels.

Reidelberger asked, "From what funds are the city payroll checks made?" Daniels replied, "From the General Fund and Revenue Sharing Fund."

Reidelberger then asked, "Are we going to be financially able to meet the payroll April, and what about May?"

City Comptroller Jeff Tolliver answered, "April yes, May, I do not know. But I am sure we will meet the payroll. We are studying our financial situation now."

Reidelberger then said, "A tax assessor told me it would be August or September before tax disbursements could be made. Is there enough money to meet payroll?"

Daniels replied, "We are looking into other sources of funds and the problem of financing the city. There are several alternatives we are investigating."

When Reidelberger continued the line of questioning, Alderman John Ervin interrupted and said, "Mr. Mayor, we're not going to sit here while this man runs his political campaign."

"He hasn't been at a City Council meeting for 12 years and now he shows up. I move we adjourn."

The motion was quickly seconded and passed, and the council members left the council table, ending the meeting.

'Big bird' roosts in tree

George Batty, 2307 St. Bernard Ave., arrived home from work last week and learned from neighbors that a "very large" bird had taken up residence in a weeping willow tree at the top of the tree. He was unable to identify the bird, but described its feathers as dark grey on top and lighter underneath. It had a bill about four inches long and it weighed between 10 and 14 pounds.

The bird had perched at the top of the tree, an estimated 30 feet from the ground. Batty said it was not a pelican, the kind that had landed near Pontoon Road last year.

DRIVER IS FACING MULTIPLE CHARGES
Floyd L. Wallace, 35, of 612 Alton Ave., Madison, was arrested on Nameoki Road last week and was charged with driving while intoxicated, illegal transportation of liquor, driving on a revoked license and speeding 60 miles per hour in a 35 zone.

Officers alleged seeing a car northbound at high speed on Nameoki Road at Clair Avenue and followed the vehicle to Nameoki Road and Pershing Boulevard. Police charged that a six-pack of beer, including one open can was found in the car.

North student writer among 18 in finals

Winners of the High School Writer's Prize, an essay-writing contest for Illinois high school seniors, will be announced and honored Thursday at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. A reception for the 18 finalists in the contest, sponsored by the SIUE department of English, will be in the Mississippi-Illinois Room of the University Center from 7 to 9 p.m.

Also invited to attend the reception, according to Betty Richardson, chairman of the English department, are the finalists' parents, teachers and high school principals. The schools that the finalists represent include:

Brussels Community High, Bunker Hill, Carlyle, Collinsville's Greenwood campus, Edwardsville, East St. Louis Senior High, Freeburg Community, Granite City North, Jersey Community, Marissa, St. Paul at Highland and Waterloo Community.

Dr. Kenneth A. Shaw, president of the university, will present monetary awards to the first three winners and certificates of achievement to the other finalists. The awards are $200 for first place, $100 for second and $50 for third.

More than 60 Illinois high schools, within a 50-mile radius of the university, were invited to participate in the competition. Each school selected three finalists through preliminary essay contests that were concluded by Feb. 9.

The semi-finalists were supplied a topic by the Writer's Prize Committee of the department of English for essays to be written in a controlled situation the week of Feb. 12-16. These essays were judged by members of the English faculty. Prof. Richardson said the faculty was "impressed" by writing skills demonstrated by the participants.

Students named to dean's list

Students from Granite City have been named to the dean's list of University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign for the fall semester. To be eligible for the dean's list, a student must rank in the top 20 percent of his or her college class or curriculum.

Area students honored were: Constance Corzilius, Liberal Arts and Sciences; Mary E. Jackson, Liberal Arts and Sciences; Dwayne E. Jorgensen, Engineering; Carol Lynn Kinney, Agriculture; Jeffrey Carl Logan, Engineering; and Christopher G. Mann, Dean E. Rochester, Robert Sawicki and Brent William Weiss, all in Liberal Arts and Sciences.

Truancy crackdown

Two cases of Truancy heard last week in the Third Judicial Court in Granite City resulted in three parents, two from one family, receiving $500 fines from Associate Judge Thomas R. Gibbons. Judge Gibbons later stayed the fines and placed each parent on one year's probation.

The fines will be reinstated should the truancy conditions continue, the judge said.

A spokesman for Coordinated Youth Services, the truancy agency of the Granite City School District, repeated efforts have been made to correct the truancy records of the youngsters involved.

One student is in elementary school and the other is a pupil at the junior high level. Both cases had been continued previously by the court for a 30-day period to give the parents another opportunity to remedy the situation, he said.

During the period of probation, the parents are required to have their child at the principal's office or home room of their respective schools at the start of each school day.
